NEBRASKA FEELS A TORNADO'S FURY.

THE TOWN OF HERMAN NOW A HEAP OF RUINS.
TEN PERSONS KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN KILLED.
MANY OTHERS ARE REPORTED FATALLY HURT.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
OMAHA, Neb., June 14.—A special to the Bee from Blair, Neb., says:
One of the worst storms in the history of Eastern Nebraska visited Herman, Neb., last evening about nine o'clock. It took the form of a tornado about two miles west of Herman, and after traveling west a short distance, turned back taking a due east course until within a half a mile of the town. It then took a southeasterly course, covering a wide area, and with a wind which was enough to clean out the entire town of Herman. Two or three residences still remain in the south part of town, though much damaged. The Methodist church and the schoolhouse were the only other buildings left. The church is being used as a hospital and morgue. The following is nearly a complete list of the dead and seriously wounded:
DEAD AND WOUNDED.
A. B. HOPKINS.
MRS. A. B. HOPKINS.
A SON OF A. B. HOPKINS.
MRS. KELSO of Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hancock, postmaster of Herman.
MRS. HAWKINS, home four miles west of Herman.

CHILD of S. M. Davis.
LOUIS NELSON, machinist, Missouri Valley.
THOMAS HINES, plasterer, Blair.
SERIOUSLY WOUNDED:
MISS KELSO, Fowler, head and face.
MRS. HAWKINS, face, body and head.
WILLIAM ANDERSON, head.
MRS. WILLIAM ANDERSON, head and body.
ED. JACKET, head.
CANBY WEST, body.
MRS. H. G. BONNEAU, head.
MRS. JOHN K. DINGENBEARD, head and body.
TOM LANKIN, leg out, body bruised.
EARL PETER, head and arms.
MRS. FRED CHRISTENSEN, head.
CHAS. ADAM, head.
GRANTIA SASSER.
MRS. HAWKINS' MOTHER, four miles west of Herman, both arms crushed.
MRS. HAWKINS, ribs broken.
MR. LENOIR, two miles east of Herman, probably fatal.
MRS. HAWKINS, No. 2, head and face severely cut, arm broken.
RESCUE WORK BEGINS.
Mrs. Hopkins' body was not found until midnight, having been carried forty rods and dropped in an orchard. The town proper is totally destroyed. Train No. 2 on the Omaha road pulled into Herman just after the storm, and its crew began the work of rescue. Nearly 100 persons were brought back to Blair. This morning relief and assistance were sent to the homeless people, many of whom had been out in the rain all night.

The home of Hon. J. H. Chambers escaped with but little harm, but his brick barn is in ruins. A large boiler was carried over a block.
GREAT DAMAGE DONE.
There was but one tornado insurance policy in the town and that for but a trifling amount. The balance is a total loss. The heavy rain that followed the storm practically ruined what had not been destroyed by the wind. The storm came on very slowly, giving most people ample time to reach their cellars. Instead of taking a straight course, the storm seemed to zig-zag back and forth.
MANY FATALITY HURT.
A large number, whose names are not reported, are severely injured, while half of those reported have received possibly fatal injuries.
AT LEAST TEN KILLED.
HERMAN, Neb., June 14.—Ten were killed and about twenty-five injured last night's tornado. It is thought all are now accounted for, unless the storm has been more disastrous in the country than anticipated. A single building in the town is left whole.
ANOTHER DISASTER.
It is reported that the tornado which struck this village wrecked several houses at Danes Hollow. Two persons were killed and ten are reported severely injured.

OREGON'S BRAVE
SOLDIER LADS
SAIL FOR HOME.

Regiment Leaves Three Score Dead Heroes.
Two Transports Carry the Volunteers to San Francisco.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
MANILA, June 14, 11:45 A. M.—The first American volunteers started for home today, the transports Newport and Ohio carrying the Oregon regiment and the First Volunteer Signal Corps. They sail for San Francisco by way of Nagasaki, Japan, and are expected to arrive at their destination July 13th. The Oregon regiment left here sixty-two dead, being the total of its men killed in battle and dead from disease as a result of the year's campaign. The troops were cheered as the transports steamed out of the harbor.
DISPATCH FROM GEN. OTIS.
WASHINGTON, June 14.—General Otis cables the following announcement about the return of volunteers:

Oregon numbers forty-six officers, 1,000 enlisted men, Signal Corps, four officers, thirty-two enlisted men. The transport Leelanau arrived yesterday.
The Oregon regiment, which left San Francisco for Manila had 957 men, but was afterward recruited to its full strength while serving in the Philippines.

"Cablegram, 12th, Thomas Healy, Private N. Thirteenth, Minnesota."

WHOLE TOWN IS ON CHEESEMAN'S TRAIL.

The Detectives Respond to Many Calls Only to Find that People of City are Unnecessarily Alarmed.

There is no occasion for a panic in Oakland.
Yet there is some danger of one. People, from slender premises, have jumped to false conclusions.
Oakland is under no reign of terror. Things are not topsy-turvy. All bedlam has not broken loose. Neither have the customary restraints and guarantees of civilized society been dissolved in this community by anything that has recently happened here.
People do well to be cautious, as always they should be. Oakland has become a great city, and the primitive customs that formerly prevailed and sufficed here, are abandoned. Householders must lock their doors. At night, the guard chain should be on. People, at all times, may answer nocturnal calls and messages with caution, and be perfectly reasonable in doing so.
But there should be no panic about it. Unnecessary alarm is likely to be spread by the feeling that has gone abroad concerning the recent front door ax attack upon H. K. Belden, a prominent citizen of Oakland.
The nearly simultaneous announcement of the escape of a homicidal lunatic from his confinement in the asylum at Napa has been identified in the popular imagination with that assault. This conclusion has vastly multiplied the terrors. It is probably an erroneous conclusion.
There is no sufficient reason for believing that the wanderer, Cheeseman, was the assailant of Mr. Belden. That gentleman may have been the object of some grudge, attaching to him from some real or fancied wrong. The probabilities are that way. The apprehension that any and every citizen of Oakland is exposed to a like attack is irrational and without foundation.
The police are doing everything in their power and everything that could be reasonably expected of them to solve both of these mysteries. Within a very few days, no doubt, both of them will be solved.
Meanwhile, the good people of Oakland will do well to go about their usual business and affairs, with cheerfulness and quiet pulses.

Unreasonable panic will not help and it will have caused much needless suffering that presently will be seen to have been wholly unnecessary.
CHEESEMAN FANE.
The fear continues that Frank Cheeseman, the murderer of Henry Brooke, is at large in this vicinity, despite the denials of the man's father and that also of the detectives of this city. The detectives have been kept busy listening to telephone messages of the appearance of men in various parts of the city who act mysteriously and all of whom are said to bear a striking resemblance to Cheeseman. When these reports, as a rule, reach headquarters, the suspects have gotten out of reach, and as a consequence the police are unable to investigate the alleged appearance of the desperate individual.
THE ALARM.
Last night about 9:30 o'clock one of these calls found Chief Fletcher, Sergeant Green and Detective Hodgkins in the office of the jail. It stated that Cheeseman had been seen in the vicinity of Carlton station, West Berkeley, and that he had momentarily disappeared, after which he was entering the Carlton barn. The officers decided upon investigating, and immediately repaired to the scene, the party consisting of Chief Fletcher, Sergeant Green and Detective Hodgkins.
THE CAPTURE.
They reached the barn, and after taking precaution to prevent the escape of the suspect and guarding against a surprise, the officers entered the place and found a man asleep in the hay loft. The slumberer was aroused and made to give an account of himself. He claimed that he was a hard working man and had been seeking for work, and having been overtaken by night and sought shelter in the first place which presented itself.
THE RESEMBLANCE.
The officers believed the story of the sleeper and left him alone with his thoughts. They stated, however, that there was quite a resemblance between him and Cheeseman, though he was a much older man than the insane murderer.

THE START.
The next scare that was experienced was in Fruitvale this morning. The police were informed by a telephone from a person whose name sounded like Hoffschmidt.
ON THE TRAIL.
It stated that Cheeseman had been seen near the Hush residence on East Fourteenth street. Detectives Quigley and Sherry drove rapidly to the scene. Detective Holland followed. When he had reached Thirteenth avenue he found Messrs. Quigley and Sherry returning.
ONLY A POOR TRAMP.
They claimed they had found the alleged suspect but that he was only an old tramp who had leaped over the fence smoking his pipe and who had frightened the inmates of the home. The alleged suspect admitted that he was a tramp and was on his way along the San Leandro road.
FEARED AN ASSASSIN IN THE NIGHT.
Miss Spaulding created a scene in the vicinity of the Receiving Hospital this morning about 2 o'clock. She accused the inmates of the place by her piercing screams. These screams, however, were not near the place by her piercing screams. When the woman saw her brother she exclaimed: "Oh, please don't shoot me. What would my little child do?" She was evidently under the impression that somebody contemplated murdering her. Officer Canoy was attracted by the woman's screams, also, and sent her in the police wagon to the City Jail on the charge of drunkenness. It was her first appearance in the court when she faced Judge Quinn this morning, and in consideration of the fact the judge suspended judgment. The woman thought Cheeseman, the madman, was pursuing her.

YOUNG HUSBAND CHLOROFORMS HIS WIFE AND THEN BRUTALLY MURDERS HER

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 14.—Evel Hanchette, a young man employed in a butter factory here, shot and killed his wife this morning and then attempted suicide by shooting himself.
He is a son of H. J. Hanchette, a well known newspaper man of this city, who mysteriously disappeared from Chicago several years ago and has never been heard of since.
CHLOROFORMED HIS VICTIM.
The tragedy took place at the Columbia lodging house on Broadway, where Hanchette and his young wife had been staying. Four weeks ago Mrs. Hanchette gave birth to a baby, who was sleeping on a couch in the room where the shooting occurred. Before committing the murder young Hanchette, who is barely 20 years of age, used chloroform to render his victim unconscious.
CAUSED HIS MOTHER'S DEATH.
The murdered woman was before her marriage George Elliott. She was but 18 years of age. Hanchette eloped with her, and after accomplishing her ruin and being found out, and they were married in San Francisco. Hanchette's mother died shortly after the elopement.
After the marriage Hanchette, who had been a wild youth, declared that he would settle down and earn a living.
MADE DISASTROUSLY BY POVERTY.
He seemed greatly attracted to his first wife, but failed to find employment, however, and was in bad financial circumstances.
The girl's mother had gone to Denver, and lately she asked the couple to go there and live with her. The husband objected to this.
COULD NOT LIVE WITHOUT HIS WIFE.
Mrs. Meyer, the landlady of the Columbia House, went to the wife's room this morning to attend to the baby's wants, and later awoke Hanchette. At 7:30 she heard a pistol shot and then a second one. She found Hanchette in the room, lying on the floor, and his wife lying on the floor. He said he had shot her and then himself. He said he must have been crazy.
FOUNDER AS WELL AS MURDERER.
Hanchette has made a dying statement in which he stated that he had forged several checks and got them cashed at Trent's drug store. He gave this as a reason for the crime. He will probably die.

DOINGS OF THE NATIVE
DAUGHTERS.

Important Proceedings That are Kept Secret.
Changes to Be Made in State of the Order and Ritual.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
STOCKTON, Cal., June 14.—The weather continues very pleasant for the sessions of the Grand Parlor of the Native Daughters, the evenings especially being delightful, resulting in a full attendance at the sessions thus far. A cool breeze today prevented the weather from being uncomfortably hot.
The most important report of the morning session was probably the report of the Committee on the State of the Order. Yesterday afternoon many queries were presented regarding the welfare of the order, and these were referred to the committee named, for decision. The decisions were all read at the session this morning and presented to the parlor for ratification or rejection. The proceedings of the parlor being secret, and only the most meagre details being given to the press, a decision and the action thereon cannot be published. The discussion on the details was general and took up considerable time.
At noon recess was taken for dinner, the Grand Parlor to reconvene at 1:30 P. M.
Efforts are also being made to abolish the reading of the constitution and by-laws of the order at meetings. This, in accordance with a Grand Parlor law, must be done under the head of the order, and as it takes up considerable time, some of the lodges believe that it should be done away with as a useless ceremony. If the matter can be wholly done away with, efforts will be made to have the reading of the constitution and by-laws at the annual convention.
It has also been recommended that the Grand Parlor offer a cash prize of $10 for the best service for Memorial Day.
The committee appointed yesterday afternoon regarding the purchasing of California products in preference to products of other States or countries, wherever possible, reported this morning, and the Grand Parlor adopted the resolution of the committee, which was in favor of purchasing California products above all others.

DEMOCRATS CAN'T LOSE.

A Pennsylvania Office They are Bound to Win.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
HARRISBURG, Pa., June 14.—For the first time in many years the Democracy enters upon a State campaign assured of the success of at least a portion of its ticket. This is due to the conditions governing the election of two Supreme Court Judges next November to fill the places of Judge Williams and the retirement of another Judge next January.
No election is anticipated for more than one candidate for this office, and as there will be two elected, each of the great parties will get one. Governor Stone will probably appoint the Democratic nominee as soon as his nomination is certified to the State Department, in which event he would rank the nomination as a State Supreme Court Judge, which does not meet until August or September.
Ex-Congressman Simon P. Wolverton and Supreme Court Justice Smith or Scranton are leading candidates. The selection of candidates for the office of State Treasurer and Superior Court Judge and the making of a platform have been almost lost sight of in the struggle for the Supreme Court Judgeship.
Only a few of the score of candidates are here, but each has his political machine, and a host of politicians and shysters. The best of feeling seems to prevail among the friends of the various candidates.
Representative William T. Cresney of Columbia is almost certain of the nomination for Treasurer.
All indications point to a two days' convention.

STEAMER SUNK IN COLLISION

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW YORK, June 14.—The steamer Rescue of the Merritt and Chapman Wrecking Company arrived in quarantine today, having been boarded by Captain Huffah, six of the crew, and Charles W. Moss and Herman Bradt, two passengers of the steamer Macedonia of the Ward Line, which was sunk by the steamer Hamilton of the Old Dominion line last night.
The remainder of the crew and one passenger, F. W. Wright, landed at Long Branch. After the Hamilton became cleared from the Macedonia and seeing the ship still afloat, Captain Huffah returned to her and endeavored to beach her, but she suddenly took a lurch and sank in six fathoms of water, about seven miles south of the Scotland lightship and one and a half miles off the shore. She lies on even keel and only the top of her funnel and her two masts are visible. The passengers saved nothing of their personal effects.

PERSUADED BY LOUBET.

Poincare Will Form a New French Cabinet.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
PARIS, June 14.—President Loubet received M. Poincare this morning for the purpose of entrusting him with the task of forming a new Cabinet. M. Poincare asked for time to deliberate and will give the President a definite reply at 6 o'clock this evening.
M. Poincare had a consultation this afternoon with MM. Ribot, Meline, Peytral and Brisson.
The interview between Mm. Loubet and Poincare lasted half an hour. In reply to President Loubet's request that he form a Cabinet, M. Poincare declared that for several years he had kept aloof from politics and party strife and was wholly unprepared to accept, under the present circumstances, the responsibilities of the premiership.
M. Loubet, however, insisted, pointing out that just for these reasons all factions of Republicans would accept this leadership more readily, adding that both the President of the Senate, M. Fallieres, and the President of the Chamber, M. Deschanel, had clearly pointed him out as the man best fitted to restore the constitution of the Republic.
Finally M. Loubet appealed to M. Poincare's patriotism and the latter thereupon consented to consult his friends. Although it is realized there are great difficulties in the way of his success, it is the general impression that M. Poincare is in earnest he will succeed in forming a Cabinet.

"The government does not only recommend in favor of conciliation, it will continue to make concessions even as regards the franchise, independently of Great Britain's acceptance or non-acceptance of arbitration."
The interview between Mm. Loubet and Poincare lasted half an hour. In reply to President Loubet's request that he form a Cabinet, M. Poincare declared that for several years he had kept aloof from politics and party strife and was wholly unprepared to accept, under the present circumstances, the responsibilities of the premiership.

NO BODIES RECOVERED.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
NEW RICHMOND, Wis., June 14.—No bodies were recovered from the tornado ruins last night, the work being abandoned on account of heavy rain, and exhaustion of the working parties.
No organized movement looking to the recovery of the dead or the distribution of supplies has been inaugurated as yet, but order is beginning to show among the chaos and demoralization prevalent since the storm.
Telegrams from all parts of the country, from San Francisco to Boston, are pouring in, asking for the safety of relatives and friends. No official list of the dead and injured has been kept, and replies to many of these inquiries will necessarily be slow. Many messages have been received offering financial assistance. The total amount thus far offered is $2,000.
The militia is patrolling the business section of the town, and nobody is permitted inside the lines.
It is expected that the task of looking for the dead will proceed with greater success than yesterday. The number still in the ruins is variously estimated from fifty up to 100. G. W. Mosher, who had been at the head of the relief work, says that fully sixty-five children were still missing, and a large number of adults as well. This estimate is generally considered too little. The working party expect to find fifteen to twenty-five bodies in the basement of Williams' hardware store.
All the morning funerals were passing through the town. There was but one funeral passable from east to west across the town, and this was a narrow, muddy thoroughfare between the ruins of buildings.

MAYOR SNOW AGAINST POLE.

Streets in Annexed District to Be Numbered.

At the close of the meeting of the Committee of the Whole of the Fire and Police Commissioners there was a short informal session of the Committee of the Whole of the Board of Public Works.

A. H. Breed, from the Fire Pole Committee for the Fourth of July, suggested that permission would be desired to erect the pole in front of the city hall plaza.

Mayor Snow said he was opposed to a pole higher than 70 feet. There was danger in a high pole because in case of fire it would not fall and a pole 70 feet in height would crash through the buildings on the other side of the street and endanger the lives of citizens.

Mr. Breed said the bottom of the pole would be embedded in concrete.

The Mayor said that that would not prevent it from falling in.

Mr. Breed did not seem to think the pole dangerous if it should be planted securely in concrete.

Mr. Dow seemed to favor the undertaking.

No recommendation was made on the subject. It was adjourned.

FEARED HE WAS CHEESEMAN.

Strange Experience of Mrs. Aiken of East Oakland.

Mrs. A. B. Aiken, wife of a San Francisco attorney, says that her home on East Nineteenth street and Alameda avenue was visited on Friday last by a man who, she feared, was Frank Chessman, the murderer of Brooke and the supposed assassin of H. K. Belden. She says the fellow gained admission to the house under the pretense that he was an employee of Calvin, who was engaged putting down carpets in the house. She afterwards ascertained that the fellow had no connection with Calvin. The stranger acted as if insane. Mrs. Aiken noticed this fact and backed to a bureau, where she snatched a loaded revolver. The crazy man saw the weapon and when he found that Mrs. Aiken was able to use it, walked out of the house, exclaiming that it was time for dinner.

He carried a hammer. On Saturday last the same man called at the Aiken home but left when he saw Mrs. Aiken's husband. The police do not believe that the fellow was Chessman. They say that he has not been in this vicinity since he escaped from the insane asylum.

Fattening Men for the Army

It will astonish those who do not know the ways of the war office to hear that in spite of all the ridicule poured upon it a year and a half ago upon the idea of fattening men for the front lines, requiring all candidates weight, irrespective of their height, measurement, etc., this regulation being inflexible. I hear that at army examination several candidates rejected under this rule. The ultra of absurdity seems to have reached in one or two cases where candidates were actually told that they were again in three time, so that the admiral would send a man down to be fatted before admission to the army. I hear next that the army "crank" adopted for his pupils the method with so much success by the growers of Sussex.—London Truth
